The LMPD YPAC convenes with Chief Conrad every other month for one year, during which time members will discuss police/community interactions and public safety issues facing Louisville. Council members are expected to participate in the conversations and share information among their peers. The meetings include dinner and are held between 6:00pm - 8:00pm at various locations throughout Louisville. LMPD staff will submit letters of recommendation and volunteer hours for participants.

Regular meeting dates: 4/11/2016, 6/6/2016, 8/1/2016, 10/10/16, 12/5/2016, 2/6/2017

Optional volunteer opportunities, outings, tours, and behind the scenes access will be offered throughout the term to further the educational process.

By signing below, the applicant and parent/guardian acknowledges the expectation for council members to attend at least five regular meetings, and understands a criminal background check will be conducted on the applicant.

LOUISVILLE METRO POLICE DEPARTMENT
Youth Police Advisory Council
APPLICATION

YPAC members must provide honest and respectful feedback to Chief Conrad regarding their perception of the police department and current police/community relationships. In a few handwritten sentences, please offer one idea you have for LMPD to improve our relationships with Louisville's youth.

Only thirty students from the entire city will be selected for YPAC. What characteristics do you possess that make you an ideal candidate for this position?

YPAC members are expected to work with a group of youth and discuss some controversial topics for the purpose of sharing different viewpoints. Give an example of a time when you collaborated in a group to accomplish a task.

Thank you for your application. All applicants will be contacted for a brief phone interview, and everyone will receive notification regarding their acceptance.
